

Pilot Applicant Team Team Member

Professional Pilots of Tomorrow is seeking additional volunteers to join our Pilot Applicant Team to assist with onboarding new mentors and mentees.

This virtual position includes the ability to review, process, and onboard new members into our organization, and is a great opportunity for individuals to get to know our newest members!

Applicants will be expected to use our member portal to process applications, and make phone calls to explain our organization's mission and purpose to prospective members.

Join us in onboarding the next generation of aviation professionals as a member of our Pilot Applicant Team. The application review process is designed to be streamlined and efficient. On average, each application takes about 5-10 minutes to review, and is followed up with a brief phone call to our prospective members.

To apply, please send a brief statement of interest to matthew.sommers@theppot.org
